A Scottish Island Corporate Retreat

The perfect place to stay, meet and play...

THE MACHRIE
ISLAY

An Island Escape

Nestled in the dunes of a pristine seven-mile beach on the Isle of Islay, The Machrie is a Condé Nast Traveller UK Top 30 Hotel with breathtaking views, outstanding links golf and delicious local cuisine.

Experience the luxury of time standing still on a beautiful rugged Scottish island. Home to some of the world's finest whiskies, wildlife, seafood and dramatic coastal seascapes, plus our very own Championship links golf course ranked 75th best in the world, The Machrie is the ideal base to host an unforgettable getaway – your very own Scottish Island Corporate Retreat!

Guests can choose from 47 bedrooms, suites and lodges, plus meeting spaces including a cinema screening room, private lounge and boardroom (click here for our meeting space options). Take advantage of our local knowledge in arranging a wide range of team building and group activities such as clay target shooting, fishing, cycling trips around the coastline, fat biking on the beach or visit one of Islay's nine distilleries, including Ardbeg, Laphroaig and Bowmore.

World Class Golf

Ranked in the Top 100 golf courses in the world, The Machrie offers a challenge for golfers of all abilities. As well as the 18-hole links, the 6-hole par 3 Wee Course, with 4 different layouts, is perfect for nearest the pin, a team-building scramble for all abilities or our 2-club challenge.

Whether you're rewarding your team or entertaining clients, a Corporate Golf Day on our championship links will be an experience you'll always remember. All our facilities offer a refined yet relaxed atmosphere to entertain your guests.

When you're planning your next event, large or small, put The Machrie top of your agenda.

Northern Ireland

The Isle of Islay, the Queen of the Hebrides, is located off the west coast of Scotland approximately 100 miles west of Glasgow while the southern tip of Islay is 25 miles north of Northern Ireland's Antrim coast.

Islay is one of the most accessible Scottish islands - just a 25 minute flight from Glasgow with Loganair or two hours by ferry from Kennacraig with Calmac. The Kintyre Express links up Islay and Northern Ireland.
